

Soccer Tours

If you have a passion for soccer, whether as a player, coach or supporter, then facing new challenges in new environments is one of the most exciting opportunities that could be offered. BMW Sports Enterprises offers just that; an opportunity to travel to Europe and play against international competition.

Traveling overseas to play soccer is a once in a lifetime opportunity and an experience you will never forget. We enhance this experience for all involved with our wide variety of customized day trips to historical sites, accommodations in charming European villages, dedicated tour guides, and soccer games against foreign opposition.

With our "hands on" approach, we keep you involved every step of the way as we customize the perfect tour package to suit your group. Our tours are one of a kind, each enriched with a unique blend of history, culture, soccer and entertainment.
